CLASS HISTORY

In the month of August, 1953, forty-six green Freshmen entered the doors of Rosholt High School. After being initiated and actually becoming part of the school, with bright faces we were eager and enthusiastic to do things which would bring a good name to our class and school. Our Freshman advisors were Miss Clark and Mr. Kuzminski. Representing us that year on the Student Council were Georgie Spare and Ralph Rutkowski. Ronald Brevick and Elizabeth Acken left us in the first semester. Our class officers were:

President . . . . .	Jon Depka
Vice-President . . . . .	Pat Rogoski
Secretary . . . . .	Deanna Paulson
Treasurer . . . . .	Wayne Colrud

Feeling more secure and confident we began our Sophomore year. Our enrollment this year dropped to forty-five as Stanley Hintz, Georgia Spare, Wallace Kuklinski, Eugene Kulas, and Ralph Lorbiecki did not return. Virginia Hoppa, Richard Wanta, Pat Dulak, August Stanislawski, Douglas Hartlaben and Rose Catozzi joined us. Our Student Council Representatives were Thelma Hanson and Kurt Knopp, and our advisors were Miss Buss and Mr. Kline. Our class officers that year were:

President . . . . .	Pat Rogoski
Vice-President . . . . .	Pat Stanislawski
Secretary . . . . .	David Schulist
Treasurer . . . . .	Jon Depka

In our Junior year, Norbert Ostrowski, George Dziedzic, Mary Ann Wierzba, Chester Hintz, Agnes Stanislawski, and August Stanislawski left us. John Brezinski, John Stanke, Jimmy Shemanski, and Pat Kulas joined us, which brought the enrollment to forty-one. This was a big year for us -- the year of our Junior Prom and our class rings. We chose "Poor People of Paris," as our theme for the Junior-Senior Prom. Ralph Rutkowski and Pat Rogoski reigned as King and Queen. Betty Lorbiecki and David Schulist represented us on the Student Council, and Mrs. Dobbe and Mr. Oestreich were our advisors. Our class officers were:

President . . . . .	Wayne Colrud
Vice-President . . . . .	Kurt Knopp
Secretary . . . . .	Leona Kizewski
Treasurer . . . . .	Pat Dulak

Much older and wiser, we entered R.H.S. in the fall of 1956 for the last lap. John Brezinski, Anthony Myska, Rodger Wrycza, Marion Gulden, Rose Catozzi and Marguerite Wedde left us. Our class demonstrated its dramatic ability in the production of "Love Is in the Air," which was directed by Mr. Wagner. Mr. Hanna was the Senior Class Advisor. Our class officers were:

President . . . . .	Leona Kizewski
Vice-President . . . . .	Anthony Yenter
Secretary . . . . .	Deanna Kosobucki
Treasurer . . . . .	Lorraine Yenter

Our Baccalaureate Services were held on May 19 and Commencement Exercises were May 23. We were the twenty-ninth class to be graduated from the Rosholt High School.

No matter what the future holds for us; whether it be further schooling, working in the labor field, or serving Uncle Sam; we, the Class of 1957, will always remember those days at Rosholt High School.

THE CRYSTAL GAZER

The little crystal sphere holds all of the future and can tell you what your soul desires to know. I have been asked to search in to its magic depths to discover the future, that waits the members of the class of '57. I am about to read the crystal, so if you will join me in concentrating upon the future, I promise you the information you desire.

The mist is clearing. It is 1967 in a little town, where school bells ring merrily on a May morning. As the children hurry in they greet their smiling teacher. It is MARIE BUNCZAK. Emptying the wastebaskets is the janitor, JIM BUDSBERG.

The scene moves to a street down town. I see an Eat and Be Merry shop where the owner, RICHARD WANTA is talking to three customers. WAYNE COLRUD, KURT KNOPP, and DAVE SCHULIST are informing him of their recent return from the Foreign Legion, after receiving their disorderly conduct discharge.

Now here's a familiar scene. We are on Main Street in Stevens Point. Through the haze we see JON DEPKA filling prescriptions in his drug store. THELMA HANSON is his assistant.

The mists blot out the scene, and when they clear away, we are in Washington D.C. Here we see KENNETH MYHRA washing windows at the White House. He is being assisted by JEANETTE DOMASK who carries his ladders.

The scene shifts to the laboratory of a tooth paste factory. DEANNA PAULSON, the president, and VIRGINIA HOPPA are mixing black rubberized tooth paste, which will come out in the Spring of '67."

The clouds lift again. We are now at Madison Square Garden, where the world's champion lady wrestlers are having a match. In the ring we see ANGIE KAMINSKI and ADELINE OSTROWSKI with the referee, TONY YENTER.

And now I see the Braves Stadium in Milwaukee. The crowd cheers as the umpire, JOHN LASKA announces the new short-stop, JIM SHEMANSKI.

More clouds and mist. Gazing through them I see a Hogan David Wine Co. in New Jersey. The chief wine taster, JOHN STANKE is busy testing samples.

Again the mists close down. When they rise we are in an office in downtown Los Angeles. On the door is a sign "Old Maids Society." The President, LORRAINE YENTER is talking to her assistant ALICE RICHTER. Across the hall is the office of the Bachelors Society. DENNIS BERNA is looking over his list of members.

The scene changes. We now see DEANNA KOSOBUCKI in her Elvis Presley record shop, happily listening to his latest recordings.

The scene becomes noisy. It is a telephone office and the head operator is MARY JANE KOZIKOWSKI. I knew her as soon as she said, "Line's busy."

And now I see a Curley Wurley shop in Milwaukee. PAT KULAS and LEORE KNOPP are busy practicing on PAT STANISLAWSKI.

More clouds and mist. When they clear I see a filled courtroom in Madison. The judge ROBERT SCHRADER raps his gavel, and the celebrated lawyer, PAT ROGOSKI takes the stand. She presents the case against MARIAN KAMINSKI for getting married without first getting a hunting license.

And now I see a young lady shopping in Milwaukee. She is buying Gerbers baby food for her set of twins called Huey and Duey. She is the former LEONA KIZEWSKI.

And now the scene grows strange. It is a studio in Hollywood. The actor picks up his script and reads the title, "We'll Get There Yet." It is the famous star, RALPH RUTKOWSKI. I hear a tinkling guitar and see PAT DULAK who plays the background music in the movie.

Again the mists close down. When they rise it is five o'clock in the morning. A farmer picks up his milk pail and heads for the barn. He is AMBROSE FLEES.

The scene changes to a counseling center in New York. Here I see the former BETTY LORBIECKI and her husband, Tony, conducting a class on "How to Have a Successful Marriage."

Again the scene changes. Through the haze we see a girl in a black leather jacket and blue jeans consulting with Mr. Hanna at Rosholt High School. She tells him, "I haven't decided yet what I'm going to be." The girl is NANCY GILBERTSON.

Now I see the sun setting in the distance. The light fades gradually. A purple haze covers everything. The crystal clouds and I can see no more.

PROM

The 1956 Junior-Senior Prom was held on April 6th. The theme was "Poor People of Paris". An Eiffel Tower cast beams of light to all corners from the center of the floor. Awnings over the stage and door and Paris murals on the North wall completed the setting. Benny Graham's Band furnished the dance music.
